2 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

3 RAMIRO CAMACHO, JR.,

4 Plaintiff,

Case No. 2:22-cv-00765-JAD-BNW

5 v.

6 WARDEN JOHNSON,

7 Defendants.

9 ORDER EXTENDING DEADLINE TO
FILE COMPLAINT AND EITHER
APPLY TO PROCEED IFP OR PAY
THE FILING FEE

10 On May 22, 2022, this Court ordered Plaintiff Ramiro Camacho, Jr., to file a
11 complaint and either apply to proceed in forma pauperis ("IFP") or pay the full $402 filing
12 fee on or before July 19, 2022. (ECF No. 3). Plaintiff thereafter filed a document titled
13 "Emergency Injunction for Relief Pursuant to Displaced Citizen Act (Obama Ex-Felon
14 Executive Order)" (ECF No. 4) and a document titled "Emergency Injunction For Relief
15 Help!" (ECF No. 5). The deadline has expired but neither document constitutes a
16 complaint¹ or an IFP application, and Plaintiff has not paid the filing fee. The Court
17 construes Plaintiff's motions as seeking more time to comply with its May 22, 2022 order.
And it grants Plaintiff that narrow relief.

18 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Plaintiff has until September 4, 2022, to:

19

- File a complaint that complies with the Court's local rules; and
- Either apply to proceed IFP or pay the full $402 filing fee.

21 Plaintiff is cautioned that his failure to timely comply with this order could result in 22 this action being dismissed without prejudice.

23 DATED: August 5, 2022.
